

As an extension to the Sir Tom Moore guided reading work, maybe your children could write a letter to him to thank him for his efforts to raise money.

Can your children think of a way they could raise money- get them to design a poster to explain how they would make money for charity.